BHGH Network Headquarters supports our 12 U.S. and 2 Latin American affiliates by facilitating joint programming for young people, providing scholarship funding for collegians, and offering comprehensive services across strategy, program design, knowledge building, training, performance management, accounting, technology, and human resources. Our scholars face real challenges-poverty, underperforming schools, neighborhood violence-but they also bring grit, resilience, and big dreams. Despite the obstacles, 100% of our scholars graduate high school, and 64% of our collegians earn a bachelor's degree within six years (triple the national average for low-income first-generation students as noted by the Pell Institute)4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 101,240 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0)International Assistance. We also assist graduating high school seniors with College Transition Plans that include financial planning, and collegians with College Persistence Plans that include check-ins with college success team members.
